This morning at 9am I attended Silverton IMT meeting. Attendees included sheriff, PIO Anthony Edwards, bill garden, local public health director.

The first item they discussed was having a "business info strike team" to get out prepared statements to business owners on positive messages that the town is open and to alleviate concerns.

They discussed the need to change their public health advisory which currently states it's unsafe to be in water. They will create new signs that reflect current situation. No new language was agreed upon at this meeting.

They are moving from response to recovery phase of the incident. And staffing down
